

Linda Makins, Principal at Makinsachange Creative Environments Inc.

Linda Makins has been in the design industry for over 35 years. Currently Ms. Makins is principal owner of MAKINSACHANGE Creative Environments Inc., a boutique design consultancy which specializes in large scale renovations to condominium buildings as well as leasehold improvements to commercial office spaces. With a lifelong dedication to the promotion of profession of interior design, Ms. Makins is a Past-President of IDC and has served on both the ARIDO and IDC boards as VP Finance. In 2018 she was awarded the distinguished honor of Fellow of Interior Designers of Canada in recognition of her contribution to the interior design industry.