

Karl Travis

Partner at Hager Design International Inc.

Hager Design International Inc. Partner, Karl Travis, has over 19 years of design experience, is a graduate of Algonquin College in Ottawa, and has a Diploma of Interior Design. He is also a 2010 inductee of his alma mater Hall of Fame for the School of Media and Design. Karl has an extensive background in the hospitality industry which also included partnership in a restaurant located in Whistler, B.C. His work experience has landed him in Toronto as well as Bermuda. Karl has his NCIDQ Certificate and is Registered Interior Designer (R.I.D) with the Interior Designer Institute of B.C., Interior Designers of Nova Scotia and Interior Designers of Canada.

Hager Design International Inc., located in Vancouver, B.C., is a hospitality design firm, specializing in hotels, restaurants, retail, and senior living.

When he isn't leading the Restaurant and Retail Division, Karl will most likely be watching or playing soccer, skiing, or playing beach volleyball with his family. His passion for fine wines is equal to that of his passion for building code (not serious!).
