

Lani Adeoye
Creative Director of Studio-Lani

Lani Adeoye is a designer, artist and consultant who works in furniture design, interior design, and experiential design.

Her designs embody an organic rhythm and inspire a sense of visual harmony. They reflect her interest in fusing traditional craftsmanship and heritage with modern innovation. In 2017, she won NYC's WantedDesign furniture competition and her works have been featured in Wallpaper, Architectural Digest, Azure, Elle Décor, Dezeen, Design Milk and many more.

Prior to studying interior design at Parsons - 'The New School,' Lani worked in management & IT consulting in Toronto, following her graduation from McGill University. She draws upon her diverse life experiences in Lagos, Montreal, New York City, and Toronto when designing.