Amber Kingsnorth

Founder and Principal, Māk Interiors

Amber is a Registered Interior Designer and LEED Accredited Professional. She founded Māk Interiors in 2012 based on the idea of providing thoughtful design and approachable, engaging service. In her nearly 18 years of experience in interiors, she has designed everything from corporate offices to hotels, retail stores to private homes.

As studio Principal, Amber oversees project goals and milestones, empowering and supporting the team to do their best work. A passionately curious person, a risk taker, and self-described business nerd, Amber's favorite part of her job is connecting with clients and learning about their brands and cultures.
