

Lisa Duxbury

Partner, Glénat Duxbury Interior Design

Lisa Duxbury earned a Bachelor of Interior Design Degree | BID – University of Manitoba; is NCIDQ certified; and is a professional member of PIDIM | Professional Interior Designers Institute of Manitoba. In 2011, she formed Glénat Duxbury Interior Design with Léonie Glénat.

Lisa's portfolio includes a variety of project types with an emphasis on luxury residential. Her designs have won GOLD in the Manitoba and Canadian Home Builder's Association Awards; and have been published in several design magazines. In 2020, she worked with an international group, taking the lead on interiors, to design a 12,000 square foot ultra-luxury villa in Gustavia, St. Barth's. This project was featured in Forbes and Architect Magazine.